Pre-holiday events
Rosh Chodesh Elul, Sunday, August 8th Elul, the last month of the Hebrew calendar, is an acrostic for the Hebrew passage Ani l'dodi, vli'dodi' li: "I am my beloved's and my beloved is mine." This reminds us that the Divine is in all aspects of the world and ourselves. We'll dive more deeply into the meaning of Elul with guided meditation and personal transmission of wisdom from Shekhinah (Divine Presence).	7-8 pm	Bring a journal/pen Rosh Chodesh Zoom ID: 981 9118 4285 Passcode: BTEE
Elul Journal, Tuesday August 17th We invite you to keep an Elul journal (2-minutes a day). Each day of Elul (except Shabbats), we'll send you an email with a shofar blast and a writing prompt for your journal.		Read your email and Journal each day
Silver Polishing Together, Sunday August 22 Adorning the sacred Torah scroll with silver Torah ornaments is a meaningful way to express the love and awe to God's Commandments. One of the popular Torah ornamentations is the Torah breastplate, suspended by chains, which fits over the staves of the Torah (atzei chayim).	11 am - 12 pm	BTEE: Sanctuary
Selichot and dedication to Kalkin Garden, Saturday, Aug 28th Join us for our first official High Holiday event in our new courtyard, the Kalkin Friendship Garden. Rabbi Lev will lead us in a brief High Holiday overview as we change the Torah covers to prepare for the holidays. We will close with a Havdallah service at sunset.	6 pm	BTEE: Courtyard
Prayer Books/ Sisterhood Goodie Bags Pickup, Friday Sept 3rd Our High Holiday prayer book, Mahzor Lev Shalem, is available in digital or hard-copy format. If you purchased a book last year online through Issuu, your copy will still be available. Alternatively, you can check out a prayer book from the office.	9 am-3 pm	BTEE: Office
